WHY US...

NEW TRADITION

CF surg is a brand of Creazioni Futura, the leading company in the Italian surgical market for reusable gowns and drapes.

CF surg is focused on technical fabrics. We look for the best answer to face the puzzling complexity of dressing the operation theatre. Our goal is to match properly performance needs and environmental awareness.

We believe in the challenge of moving ahead the tradition. Our pride is to be the right partner for the health-care laundries: to fulfill this demand we work endlessly on new materials and new procedures. Our strength is to produce items on demand. Our effort to outreach the client expectations.

WHAT WE DO...

DRAPES, GOWNS AND MUCH MORE...YOUR NEEDS

Materials used as barrier, for drapes and gowns, are laminated fabrics. We alternate membranes in PTFE and PU (polyurethane). PTFE advantages: great breathability and long lasting life circle; PU strengths: great flexibility and perfect combination between quality and price.

Every customer has a different point of view: we listen to them to find the best solution, together.

As complementary fabrics we use microfibers. All proposed articles are in polyester, with or without a conductive grid. The density of threads per centimeter, combined with the particular characteristic of construction of the yarns, gives to these materials a fine smoothness and lot of properties as:

- antistatic action
- reduced linting
- water repency
- levity
